ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
EIC SUBCOMMITTEE ON SHIPBUILDING
Fiscal Year 1971

1. The EIC Subcommittee on Shipbuilding in the past year continued to serve as the focal point for interagency discussion and research on shipbuilding developments in the USSR and other communist countries. All member agencies participated actively and enthusiastically in the subcommittee's regular meetings, interagency research projects, [REDACTED]

2. The subcommittee's major research project in the past year, conducted by an ad hoc committee composed of DIA, CIA, NSA and various Navy elements was instrumental in consolidating the intelligence community's judgments on Soviet nuclear submarine recording and overhauls. The results of this research have been published and given appropriate dissemination.

3. The subcommittee hosted [REDACTED] in May. This conference was particularly noteworthy in that:

4. Plans are under consideration for future subcommittee programs which would contribute to more effective performance of its mission as outlined in its Terms of Reference. These are designed to facilitate a more active and timely exchange of views [REDACTED] and to establish closer contact with intelligence users such as the Ship Systems Command. The primary concern of the subcommittee will continue to be to promote effective interagency review and coordination as a means of improving economic intelligence research in the field of shipbuilding.
